

Tractor Pedal Races

September 22 at Kiwanis Park

Children ages 3-6 will be able to take to the race track during the Tractor Pedal Cars at the Family Day in the Park event Sept. 22.

Registration will be held from 9-9:30 a.m. at the CornFest flatbed, with the races beginning at 10 for participants ages 3-4. Their races will be followed by children ages 5-6 at 10:30.

There will be no need for children to bring their own racing machines this year as Tennessee Tractor has generously donated the use of several tractor pedal cars to keep everyone on the same footing during the race.

Trophies for first, second and third places will be handed out to the fastest racers in each age divisions.

There will also be a trophy for the participant dressed in the best farmer costume.

For more information, call (615) 788-6104.

Brandon Ash of Union City is in his second year of volunteering with CornFest and this year has accepted the role of chairman for the Tractor Pedal Cars at the Family Day in the Park event.

He is employed at Hopkins Investments. He has two children – Branson Ryder Ash and Axel Ray Ash.

