

FOR EVERY SHADE OF BEAUTY — Kaycee Parker, owner of Martin's Merle Norman studio welcomes you to her shop for a "beauty-ful" holiday season. The studio offers skin care products for men and women and the cosmetics that will give you your own personal look for every season. She also carries a large selection of wigs and jewelry for any occasion. The studio is conveniently located on Frederick Street in Downtown Martin.

DIVA'S DESIRE — Steve's Jewelers in Union City may be a small town jeweler but they have big city connections. They are your local diamond broker dealing with the largest supply houses in Antwerp, New York, Chicago and Atlanta. You will find diamonds from one carat to over 10 carats. Their cases are filled with the latest trend of colored diamonds and diamond slice jewelry beautifully mounted in precious metals as well as Pandora, Fossil watches and a whole host of designer and fashion jewelry. Come in and fill out a wish list and let Steve Emrich and Victoria Treece make sure you receive your favorites to celebrate your next special occasion.

GIFT BASKETS GALORE — Higher Ground Coffee Co. in Martin can customize any gift basket for the coffee or tea lover in your life. Taylor Clark, Shelby Willett, Stacie Herrell, Mika Purvis, Maggie Wright and Lacie Jones can create a blend of mugs, flavored coffees and teas, and candies to create a basket perfect for your caffeine connoisseur. If you're not sure what their favorite flavors are, gift cards in any amount can help take the guesswork out of shopping and Higher Ground in the University Commons Shopping Center will take care of the rest.
