Throughout the week, students will compete in a coin war contest within the classes. Each day students will bring in pennies (or any other coins) to donate. The class that brings in the most coins will be announced at Friday's game and given a prize. All of the money collected throughout the week will be donated to three different causes: Kara Kuhns Student Support Fund, Susan G. Komen Foundation, and St. Jude's Hospital.

Students in the ALAH Leadership class encourage everyone to attend and be part of this amazing week for this amazing cause.
