the early days. In fact, our very first Homecoming at Arthur High was incorporated into the festival for several years.

Many groups have been involved in sponsoring the event over time, but Arthur Woman's Club wins the longevity award. Thank you, AWC!

That list by no means includes everything going on, but it is a start. And that's "30" today for fall when it finally gets here!

school students.

The AAEDC organization continues to work with area professionals to maintain the services our residents and business organizations have come to receive and expect. We are meeting with companies each week to keep them in town and serve the residents throughout the Arthur Area.

Available venues are sometimes a challenge, and I appreciate the effort some of the venue owners make to "share" their space and facilities with new companies as well as current companies desiring to relocate while staying in Arthur.

We are blessed to have businesses wanting to locate or relocate to the Arthur Area. It is our opportunity to work together to find and offer available space for them. These are weekly, sometimes daily, opportunities for each of us to work with others to continue to Grow In Arthur.
