

Wise and Otherwise

What are you doing New Year's Eve?

By KENT A. STOCK
Staff Writer

Since many of you are probably reading this in 2019, the question should be what did you do New Year's Eve? Party all night long, see in the first sunrise of the New Year, and/or ask yourself if you had a good time because you can't remember most of it?

Not these days, buddy, as many of my age or even younger have hung up their all night ways. Maybe not entirely because God has given us short term memory loss so we go out there and, despite being mid-50s, we try to act like we are in our mid-20s.

Life will remind you the next day or several days, that is definitely not the case; trust me on this one. God has a sense of humor, you know.

Today, it is more like, "Honey, are we staying up to watch the ball drop?" The spouse doesn't answer, and you are like, "Yes! Bedtime!"

Does snoozing together in your respective recliners count as a celebration? I'll allow it. The snoring can be like your own noisemakers welcoming in the next year.

Our family gets together and plays games, eats, watches some sort of sporting event, eats, tells stories, eats...I think you get the picture. We adults do our best to keep each other awake until midnight.

Our tradition is at the stroke of twelve on New Year's Eve, we go outside of our house to bang on pots and pans. Thankfully, we have lived for decades near these people, and they know of our noisy tradition. They put up with us anyway. No one has shot us yet. Let me emphasize yet, please and thank you.

Just like noisemakers or party horns, it is supposed to scare away the evil spirits from the old year.

Tradition also says you are supposed to come out one door, make your ruckus, and then go back in another door because that will confuse any evil spirits that might not have been scared off by all the noise.

If that is the case, evil spirits are just plain stupid.

It is normally a quick trip out of doors because, well, we live in Illinois and quite often it is a balmy four degrees below zero on December 31.

The evil spirits probably aren't even there those nights because they are in their nice, warm home watching Dick Clark's Rockin' New Year's Eve.

We end up by trying to sing "Auld Lang Syne," which, out of all the noise we make, is probably the most likely thing to scare off most anything!

Happy New Year 2019!
Hope you made it until midnight!

Zion News

Thought for the day: "The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched—they must be felt with the heart." —Helen Keller

Christmas lights are one of the favorite things about Christmas for many people—getting to turn the tree on each evening and have the soft glow of the lights fill the room, or getting to drive around the Arthur community and see all the houses bright with lights. It's pretty sad when January rolls around and it's time to pack away the tree and all the decorations.

The lights at Christmas are actually a great reminder about another light, a light called "The Light of the World." This Light is actually a person, and we celebrate his coming into our world at Christmas.

As the Light of the World, Jesus is not a flashing, dancing reindeer display, nor is He hung on a tree to decorate it. But He does make a huge display of His love for us and that is most clearly seen when he was hung on a different kind of tree, the cross, and died for the sins of the world. At that moment when Jesus died for us, we see how He is the Light of the World. He brings the light of the gospel and salvation to us and allows us to be freed from the darkness of sin and death.

On many of the December 19 Arthur Graphic newspapers there was an ink blotch over part of the Zion News that was about "Something to remember for Christmas." The information then offered is just as important for a New Year as well, "A person must hold an image in their mind for at least twenty seconds for it to become a long-term memory." Hopefully, in 2019, you will take many 20-second opportunities to make wonderful long-term memories.

God is in the business of answering prayer. We often only stress prayer "requests," but it is also a joy to share "answers" to prayer. Mary Fern Carlyle is doing much better after surgery to repair a broken hip. She is now recuperating in the Arthur Home.

Another answer to prayer was our Christmas Eve service at Zion. We had a full church, old friends and family of the church came, and new friends were made. We all worshiped together in a Lessons and Carols Candle-Lighting Service. Many had not met Rev. Gartung and his wife Ruthie. It was a great joy and a beautiful service.

An interesting thing for us was that, since this type of service was first used in 1918 in England, traditionally the local mayor or magistrate would read the lessons which were scripture passages. So, we were true to form as Arthur mayor, Rod Randall, was involved in the service. Ramona Carlyle and others provided awesome music for the service.

Please mark your calendars. There will be a Blood Drive at the Methodist Church Fellowship Hall, 128 E. Illinois Street in Arthur on Thursday, January 10 from 1:00 p.m. until 6:00.

Arthur Ministerial Association is planning a Pulpit Exchange on Ecumenical Sunday, January 20, 2019. Rev. Bruce Weiman of Arthur United Methodist Church will speak at Zion, and Rev. Gartung will speak at the First Baptist Church of Arthur.

Our prayer concerns continue to include Paul Knobloch, Katana Ponder, Jerry and B J Hale, J B and Jean White, Todd Martin and his family, Bobby and Reagan Miller, Jim and Jackie Tholen, Sharon Parsano, Donna Schultz, Jeff Romine, Ben Valerio, David Walker, Elsie Windings, Betty Sawyer, Wilmer and Lela Otto, LaVerne Smith, Jim Dycus, Marvin Helmuth, Henry Schrock, Charlotte Eagan, and Lane Drake and his family.

Chuckle for the day (and maybe good advice for the New Year): "I find television very educational. Every time someone turns it on, I go in the other room and read a book." —Groucho Marx

Rev. Gartung welcomes your calls and email. You may reach him at 460-1892 or at dennis@gartung.me. He and his wife, Ruthie, would be glad to visit with you. Just give them a call or send an email.

Zion's worship service starts at 9:00 a.m. each Sunday with various Sunday School activities following at 10:30.
