Pull out the center pages and bring with you to the festival to use as your guide. Note that the map is not drawn to scale.

Raffles Must Comply With State, Federal Regs

Each year, the Chamber of Commerce is hit with many requests for groups, clubs, and individuals wanting to hold raffles at the festival. The Board of Directors recently voted that raffles must comply with state and federal regulations to be held at the festival.

Religious and non-profit organizations, such as school clubs, are allowed by law to hold raffles.

Groups that are wanting to raise funds are welcome to set up at the festival as long as they have a booth and are selling items. In the past, school clubs have sold Krispy Kreme doughnuts and other items.
