

first teacher at Blue Moon School in 1863. He went on to become the County Surveyor and died in 1911. This character can “look back” on county’s development and share interesting anecdotes as well as combining early history of education in the area.

The Country Fire Cloggers will dance at 2 p.m.. Country Fire is a traditional clogging team from Ellsinore and Piedmont. Country Fire has been performing at the festival for several years and always draws a crowd. Country Fire has about 46 members, ages 6 to 62. Clogging is known as a percussive dance. The dancer’s footwear creates music as it strikes against the floor. People love to watch the dancers’ high energy routines.

Just E Nuff will take centerstage at 3 p.m. Just E Nuff goes through the great country hits from the 70s to the present, while throwing in some flavorful twists! Members of the talented group are Brandon Bates and Justin Parker.

The final entertainment slated for Saturday is Brad O’Dell and Lost Country. They will play from 5-7 p.m.
