

Your 2018 Ozark Heritage

Heritage Artisan Vendors

The Ozark Heritage Festival is bringing back some “they don’t make it like that anymore” demonstrations this year. These vendors will be located at the Pavilion and beyond on the walkway. Please come to this area to enjoy and shop at these craftsmanship vendors.

* - Vendors giving periodic demonstrations

H1* - Wood carving - Gary Buckley (Pavilion)

H2* - Spinning yarn and crafts - Barbie French (Pavilion)

H3* - Pottery wheel - David Porter (Pavilion)

H4* - Sam A. Baker State Park, artifacts- M. Soensen, Naturalist

HS* - Wood carving and more - Jim Strauch

H6* - Basket weaving & twine rag rugs- Linda Strauch

H7 - Serenity Custom Calls - Curt Branson

H8* - Hand quilting - Catherine and James Price

H9-11 - Miller Custom Name Logs - Seth and Kim Miller

H12 - Handmade wooden items - John Martin

H13 - Busy Beaver Woodshed, barnwood and pallet items - Carla Taylor

H14* - Spinning wool and story telling - Rebecca Privitt

H15 - Scot’s Game Calls - Scot McWaters

H16* - Lahmann Leathercraft s- Dakota Lahmann

H17* - Finger Weaving and loom - Susan Ream

CRAFT BOOTHS NO ELECTRIC

B1 - Sherry Miller - baby blankets, soft books

B2 - Sherry Miller - baby blankets, soft books

B3 -Claudia Smith - crafts

B4 -Three Hawks (Denise Szafranski) - home blended spices and preserves BS -Three Hawks (Denise Szafranski) - home blended spices and preserves B6 -Samantha Smith -Amish bread, jewelry, whirligigs

B7 - Connie Mattingly - Halloween decor, pumpkins, treats

B8 -Vicky Sansourcie - Jewelry

B9 -Ladybug Arts & Crafts (Veronica Cannon) -wreaths, wall hangings