very popular. She loves to work the crowd and get the audience involved while she sings. The Chamber is hoping for a large crowd to come out for Fisher's show. Many people are unsure what karaoke is and often equate it with lesser talent. Fisher is a quality act and is something festivalgoers will not want to miss.

Entertainment will begin Saturday immediately after the parade. It is hoped that the first entertainment will take center stage at 11 a.m.

BreAnna Conner of Piedmont will kick off Saturday's slate of entertainers. She will open with the National Anthem. Conner is well known through the county. She grew up singing at area festivals. Most recently, she sang at the Labor Day festivals in Williamsville and Ellsinore and at the Wayne County Bicentennial celebration.
