R.J. Abernathy

R.J. Abernathy is the son of Ronald and Sheron Abernathy. His plans after high school include attending college and playing basketball. Eating is his favorite high school activity and his favorite teacher is Mr. Cole. He said that math is his favorite class because it's a fun subject when the teacher knows how to teach. His fondest memory is playing in the state tournament with his classmates for their last season in high school. Abernathy said that his greatest lesson learned at HHS is that all of his coaches taught him how to be a man. When asked about his wish for those he leaves behind, Abernathy replied, "I wish for them to have as good of a high school experience as me."

Canesha Allen

Canesha Allen is the daughter of Carnell and Carlitha Allen. After graduation, she plans to attend Baptist College of Health Science to become a nurse. Cheering is her favorite HHS activity and her favorite teacher is Mr. Adams. Algebra is her favorite class because her teacher has taught her so much. Allen said that her fondest HHS memory is when the classes of 16' and 17' were there. The greatest lesson she learned while at HHS is that people you walk into high school with, you don't always walk out with. Her wish for those she leaves behind is, "A great high school year."

Raveen Michelle Austin

Raveen Michelle Austin is the daughter of Anita Austin. After graduation, she will attend the University of Tennessee at Martin for four years and major in social work. She then plans on becoming a human services worker. Her favorite HHS activity is attending pep rallies and basketball games. Her favorite teachers are Mr. Adams and Mr. Ingram. She enjoys personal finance because they were taught how to manage money and deal with actual life circumstances. When asked about her fondest HHS memory, Austin said, "I enjoyed all my memories at HHS, all the good laughs and talks – but all of the sports events will always be my favorite memories." The greatest lesson she learned while at HHS was to have no regrets because every decision you make is a chance to learn something. To those she leaves behind at HHS, Austin said, "Always put God first. With him, you can't fail."

Calista Beard

Calista Beard is the daughter of Tamika Beard and Eddie Holloway. Her plans after high school include going to a four-year university, majoring in nursing and minoring in Spanish. Performing in the band is her favorite HHS activity. Her favorite teacher is Heather Glenn-Hoekstra and her favorite class is band because it is where she can truly be herself. When asked about her fondest memory, Beard said, "Having Heather Glenn-Hoekstra, my band director, and her friends push me out of my shell to do my first audition ever." The greatest lesson she learned while at HHS is don't be afraid to be yourself and don't think about the negative. When asked about her wish for those she leaves behind, Beard said, "Don't sacrifice your happiness for others, you should come first."

Davante Bradford

Davante Bradford is the son of Sharlice and Zedrick Mclin. After graduation, he plans to go to TCAT in Dickson for automotive and welding. His favorite HHS activity is gym and his favorite teacher is Coach Green. Auto-mechanics is his favorite class because he wants to learn more about cars. Dr. Thomas singing is his fondest HHS memory. The greatest lesson he learned while at HHS is don't wait on others to do stuff for you. You have to do it yourself if you want to get it done. When asked about his wish for those he leaves behind at HHS, Bradford said, "Do what you have to do to graduate and continue your education. Don't let others stop you from doing what you want."

Payne Brittain

Payne Brittain is the son of Barry and LeAnne Brittain. His plans after high school include attending Jackson State Community College, then Union University and earning a Bachelors of Science degree in nursing. His favorite HHS
