activity is football and his favorite teacher is Mr. Adams. When asked about his favorite class, Brittain replied, "Any math class with Mr. Adams. He's hilarious and creates ways for everyone to understand what he is teaching." Brittain said his fondest HHS memory is the time he, Lucas Williams, and Adam Hartig "fell" in the greenhouse pond. When asked about his greatest lesson learned while at HHS, Brittain said, "You're never guaranteed another game, so make the best of it. —Sincerely, the guy who had two shoulder surgeries." To those he leaves behind at HHS, Brittain wishes that they will enjoy their senior year to the fullest because it's over before you know it.

Da'shanieka Brown

Da'Shanieka Brown is the daughter of Samantha Smith. After graduation, she plans to attend college, further her education and travel. Her favorite HHS activity is running track and her favorite teacher is Mr. Green. Brown said that coding 2 is her favorite class because it is hand-on. Her fondest HHS memory is coming together as a class and having fun. Brown said her greatest lesson learned while at HHS is that the people you start out with won't always be who you finish with and that you should take your education seriously when you start. When asked about her wish for those she leaves behind at HHS, Brown said, "I wish y'all the best and a safe journey throughout high school."

Makayla Brown

Makayla Brown is the daughter of Tressa Brown. After graduation, she plans to attend Jackson State Community College. Her favorite HHS activity is band and her favorite teacher is Mrs. Heather. Her favorite class is band because she loves music. Her fondest HHS memories come from all of the time she has spent playing in the band. The greatest lesson she has learned at HHS is never play around, always try your best and never say "I can't". To those she leaves behind at HHS, Brown said, "I want to leave all my upcoming 9th grade babies my love and best wishes. I want to leave Tyreke

Cole my best love."

Zarria Brown

Zarria Brown is the daughter of Ann Weddles and Joe Brown. Her plans after high school include attending MTSU and majoring in Exercise Science. Her favorite HHS activity is volleyball and her favorite teacher is Rosie Laman. Applied Math is her favorite class because "Mr. Adams actually taught me and gave me a reason to learn." Brown's fondest HHS memory is all of the times she spent laughing and having fun with her classmates. The greatest lesson she learned while at HHS is no matter how easy or hard the work gets, always do your best. When asked about her wish for those she leaves behind at HHS, Brown replied, "Don't try hard at keeping friends. It's rare to end with the ones you begin with, so focus on you and school."

Natalia Carey

Natalia Carey is the daughter of Dwana Ingram and Jonathan Walker. After graduation, she plans on going back to school to get a degree and working in a field that she loves. Her favorite HHS activity is the pep rallies and her favorite teacher is Mr. Adams. Mr. Ingram's class is her favorite because he conversed with all of the students. Carey stated that her fondest HHS memory is all of the memories she's made with her classmates. The greatest lesson she learned while at HHS is that you only hurt yourself by not trying. When asked about her wish for those she leaves behind at HHS, Carey said, "Make sure to do your work and pay attention because it's only going to hurt you in the long run."

Tristen Carey

Tristen Carey is the son of Dwana Carey. His plans after graduation include going to college and graduating. His favorite HHS activity is football and his favorite teacher is Mr. Kendall. English is his favorite class because all of his friends were in there. His fondest HHS memory is winning their first football game in two years. The greatest lesson he learned while at HHS is
