that you've got to work hard for what you want. To those he leaves behind at HHS, Carey said, "My wish is to leave my knowledge."

Kianna Clark

Kianna Clark is the daughter of Mary Lou Johnson and Ulysses Clark Jr. After graduation, she plans to attend Bethel University or UT Martin to pursue a career in psychology or nursing. Her favorite HHS activities are FFA and Beta Club and her favorite teacher is Mr. Wiles. Greenhouse is her favorite class because it was a hands on experience and her favorite teacher offered the class. Clark's fondest HHS memory is hosting her last FFA banquet. When asked her greatest lesson learned while at HHS, Clark replied, "To be confident in your decision-making whether its right or wrong."

Damaris Coleman Jr.

Damaris Coleman Jr. is the son of Damaris Coleman and La'Precious Coleman. His plans after graduation include attending MTSU or Lincoln Tech. His favorite HHS activities are football and track and his favorite teacher is Tony Kendall. History is his favorite class because "it teaches us the history of African Americans and what we had to go through to get to this point." His fondest HHS memory is going to state for track.

Thomas Cook

Thomas Cook is the son of Beverley Cook and Donald Cook. After graduation, he plans on going to school for H-VAC at TCAT. His favorite HHS activities are football and track and his favorite teacher is Mr. Wiles. Mr. Wiles' class is his favorite because he likes going to the greenhouse to check on the plants. His fondest HHS memory is senior ditch day. Cook said his greatest lesson learned is that you have to work hard to reach your goal. His wish for those he leaves behind at HHS is, "I wish for them to work hard and be successful."

Eli Coronado

Eli Coronado is the son of Martha and Manuel

Coronado. His plans after graduation include majoring in Biochemistry and attending medical school. His favorite HHS activity is band and his favorite teachers are Heather Glenn-Hoekstra and Delaney Naffziger. Band and applied mathematics are his favorite classes. His fondest memories at HHS are the spring concert and the West Tennessee orchestra audition. Coronado said his greatest lesson learned while at HHS is that you don't always get when you want if you don't try. When asked about his wish for those he leaves behind at HHS, Coronado said, "Pace yourself, plan out your life and get to the top."

Chaslyn Crews

Chaslyn Crews is the daughter of Shari Brooks. After graduation, she plans to attend the University of Tennessee at Chattanooga and major in Exercise Science. Cheering is her favorite HHS activity and her favorite teachers are Mr. Adams and Mrs. Rosie. Mr. Adams class is her favorite because it's where she had to push herself the most. Crews stated, "I had the best teacher to help me when I struggled."

Her fondest HHS memories are all of the times she spent laughing and enjoying time with her classmates. The greatest lesson she learned while at HHS is that time flies by when your having fun and to also cherish every moment that you have.

Jerome Dickerson

Jerome Dickerson is the son of Tanika Lewis and Dallas Dickerson. His plans after graduation include going to Jackson State and majoring in business management. He also said, "If that doesn't go well, I might just get a job." His favorite HHS activities are all of the homecoming activities and his favorite teacher is Mr. Adams. When asked about his favorite class, Dickerson said, "Mr. Adams because he taught me well and helped me when I needed it. He would always wake me up when I fell asleep." His fondest HHS memory is "last year, I was always in the library either doing my work or sleeping but I was basically doing both." When asked about his greatest lesson learned
