L&B Roadhouse opens in Lometa

Brian and Lori Hall bought the location of the former Ritters BBQ in Lometa and opened a barbecue restaurant of their own there, something they had wanted to do for some time.

They had their grand opening at L&B Roadhouse on Sept. 21, 2018, and have seen more and more people come in when the restaurant is open every Thursday, Friday and Saturday. They have already had the pleasure of getting to know folks in the community, and several have already become regulars, enjoying their traditional Texas barbecue — brisket, ribs, chicken, sausage, pulled pork, and all the trimmings, including homemade pies and cookies.

“We’re settling in. We love it,” Lori said. “We plan to be here a long time.”

Right now, L&B Roadhouse is open from 4-8 p.m. Thursday, 11 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. Friday, and 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. (or until they run out) on Saturday. With about 5 days notice, they also cater for families and events. Down the line, they may look at opening for specialty nights on Thursdays, but for now they are happy with the hometown feel they are enjoying and helping to create with their business.

“We’re happy cooking for people for as long as they want to keep coming to eat!” Lori said.
