

Brother & Sister Bag Mills County Bucks

The Stephens family lives in Rogers and bought a ranch in Mills County three years ago. "The ranch is just far enough away from Rogers to feel like we are really 'away' from home, but not too far of a drive," said Robert. "We love coming here to hunt, shop and relax."

of Mills County General Store. The buck, nicknamed 'Kick Nine, sported long tines and a 9th kicker point on his left G2.

BELOW - Kash's big sister Karsen (12) got her a nice nine point buck Sunday morning of Opening Weekend while hunting with Dad. She shot the buck with her 6.5 Creedmor she got for her birthday. The 75 yard shot was no problem for Karsen and her Creedmoor.

Big brother Kole saw lots of legal bucks this weekend, but didn't see one big enough to shoot. Watch for a photo of Kole's buck in a future edition of The Goldthwaite Eagle.
