

Seniors Speak Out...

Philpot because he splits up his class with workers and non-workers and he is a great teacher. - Devon Propes

I would have to say that the teacher that impacted me the most would have to be Mr. Tolle. He strives to make sure you do your best at everything and he is a great teacher. If you ever need help, Mr. Tolle is the guy. - Elijah Moseley

David Tolle, Dustin Philpot, and Don Tison. - Jallen Griffis

Philpot. - Dalton Corbitt
Mrs. Cara Goodman - she is the easiest person to talk too, and Coach George, he made me work the hardest for a good grade, it really taught me how to study - Holly Mullis.

Coach Doug because he was my coach for 4 years. Mr. Tolle and Coach George because I thought they got me ready for college. - Brence Cason

Rance Morgan because he pushed me to be a better version of myself. David Tolle because he expanded my thought process, making me even more intelligent. - Andrew Crear

Mr. Tolle is a very professional teacher who impacted how I viewed books and reading. There is so much more meaning behind books. Mrs. Emily Kennedy taught me that is important to help others. She has helped me with countless things that she didn't have to. - Alora Deloach

If I had to choose I would pick Ms. Jane Ann Musgrove and Mr. Tolle. Mr. Tolle is a good teacher and

I enjoyed his class when I had him. Ms. Musgrove is wonderful as well and she helped me a lot with my math work when I didn't understand some things. - Luxie Harris

Mr. Tolle, Chad Jones, Molly Daugharty, and Cindy Seagraves. - Breanna Cason

Mrs. Kennedy and Mr. Tolle because they always encouraged me to do myself in everything I do. - Erica Edmond

Mrs. Emily Kennedy and Mr. David Tolle. They always helped out and prepared us for the college life. - Leylan Marshall

Coach Rance Morgan. He taught me many life skills in homeroom. Coach George because he taught me about things that will happen in life and how to overcome them. - Dylan Johnson

Mrs. Molly Daugharty because she taught me how to draw mandallas, and how to respect and appreciate art. - Courtney Gill

Don Tison because he taught me valuable life lessons. - C.J. Gwynn

Lee Douglas because he pushed me and my teammates to be the best we could be. - Warren Stovall

Mr. Tolle and Mrs. Molly. These two teachers really had a great impact on me with their great teaching and they are always pushing their students to do the best in their classes. - Tieanna Wells

Mr. David Tolle because he screams out the lines while reading. - Brady Suggs

Miss Seagraves. She

helped me out a lot in algebra. She loved helping me and overall she is a great teacher! I also loved Mr. Tolle's class! He taught us so many interesting things about literature. - AnaLee Wheeler

Coach George because even though he was kind of hard in class, he made me look at science a different way. - Jasmine Sorrow

Dustin O'Neal for believing in me and being a great role model and friend. Sean Mercer for being the coolest teacher there is and helping me graduate. - Austin Tanner

Mrs. Emily Tomlinson. She is not just a teacher, she is someone we could come to at any time. She treated us all as her own and will remain special to me throughout the years. We worked hard in her class, but we also had fun.

- Santana Wyers
Mr. Tolle because he is very enthusiastic and full of energy. Coach George because he pushes you hard because he wants you to achieve your goal. Mrs. Emily because she is a fun teacher to be around and she gives great energy and she cares about her students. Ms. Molly because she is very intelligent and helps all her students. - Beyounce Thomas

Philpot and Chad Jones. They teach students real life knowledge to apply to life. - Seth Strickland

Mrs. Lori Thompson because she's fabulous and always pushing us for greatness. Mr. Tolle because he is so full of energy and enthusiasm. Coach George because he keeps it real and understands. - Chasidy Thomas
