Clinch Memorial Hospital announces new primary care practice in Homerville

Clinch Memorial Hospital announces that it is inaugurating Clinch Memorial Family Practice, a new primary care practice in Homerville. The mission of this primary care practice is to provide high quality and convenient healthcare to Clinch County and surrounding areas. "We're glad to be able to respond to patient and community demand with the new Clinch Memorial Family Practice", said Hospital CEO Angela Ammons.

This new primary care is funded in part with funds from a $750,000 Phase IV Rural Health Stabilization Grant from the Georgia Department of Community Health. Grant funds were used to completely renovate the office and partner with other local health care ser-VICES such as Unison Behavioral Health and Clinch County Health Department to integrate health education, behavioral and mental health, and primary care services into one central location.

Clay McKinnon, NP will be serving as the primary provider and will be accepting new patients beginning June 7, 2019. Clinch Memorial Family Practice is located at 80 Huxford Street in Homerville. Additional information about the practice, its services, and its hours, is available at www.clinchfamilypractice.org.

For more information, please call Clinch Memorial Hospital at 912-487-5211.

Located in Southeast Georgia, Clinch Memorial Hospital is a 25-bed critical access hospital serving Homerville, Clinch County, and surrounding counties. Clinch Memorial was originally founded in 1957 as a 48-bed rural community hospital and moved to a new facility in Homerville in 2007. Services offered at Clinch Memorial include: Emergency Department,

Emergency Medical Services, Pulmonary Rehabilitation, Respiratory Therapy, Radiology, Gastroenterology, Medical Stabilization, Laboratory, Nursing, Physical Therapy, Sleep Studies and Swing Bed Services. To learn more, visit www.clinchmh.org/

McRae named AAC Freshman of the Year

John Michael McRae was named ACC Freshman of the Year while head coach Mike Croley was named AAC coach of the year. Junior Josh Johnston earned a spot on the All-Conference first team while seniors Austin Bishop and Gregory Elder, Jr. earned a spot on the All-Conference second team.

McRae had a stellar rookie season at Truett-McConnell, starting and playing in all 49 games in right field to record a fielding percentage of .980 while recording an overall batting average of .354 and an AAC batting average of .358. The 6'2" freshman compiled a total of 69 hits, 13 doubles, one triple 37 runs scored and three home run, including the grand slam that sparked a dominating win in the AAC tournament. McRae also stole nine bases and had two season highs tallying four hits. Most recently, McRae earned a spot on the All-Tournament team after going 10-for-19 at the plate. McRae is the only player from Truett McConnell University to ever win AAC Freshman of the Year. He is the son of Michael and Ashley McRae, and the grandson of Austin and Gail Deloach of Homerville.

When Seconds Count, Count on Us.

When a heart attack strikes, every second counts. Coffee Regional Medical Center is proud to announce its newest cardiac service line - Cardiac Stenting. When having a heart attack, being able to quickly identify and open a blocked artery can affect your overall recovery. Now, CRMC can not only effectively diagnose a blockage in our cardiac catheterization lab, but we can now place a stent in the artery to open that blockage.

So, when seconds count, know you can count on us!

Dr. Glenn Evans of CRH Cardiology Group has treated thousands of South Georgians throughout his 23 years as a practicing Interventional Cardiologist. Dr. Evans previously performed interventional heart catheterizations in Valdosta. He is now performing procedures in Coffee Regional Medical Center's cardiac cath lab.
