

Seniors Speak Out....

What teacher had the most impact on you?

Mrs. Emily Tomlinson's CNA class. She really helped me come out of my shell. - Hallee Henderson

Numerous teachers have had a great impact on me. Among them, Mr. David Tolle, Ms. Molly Daugharty, Coach Terrence George, Mrs. Emily Kennedy, Ms. Cindy Seagraves, and Mr. Robert McCoy have taught me valuable lessons to help me grow in life inside and outside the classroom. I am

forever grateful. - Caleb Register

Emily Kennedy. She was always there to help me and others that would have benefited from her aid. - Mitchell Prescott

Philpot had the most impact on me because he always told me not to chase women, make them chase you. - Thomas Lankford

Mr. Tolle because he inspired me to do better. - Logan Wilson

Mrs. Emily Kennedy. - Gunner Steedley

Mrs. Seagraves and Mr. Tolle. Mrs. Seagraves just taught in a way that I could understand it so easily and she never once overburdened us with work. Mr.

Tolle and his teaching style that really just drives home what he is teaching and acting out scenes in books to really emphasize the point. - Reese Latham

Coach George. He was always giving life lessons that will help us in the future. Mr. Tolle was always so honest. - Skylar Lashley

Rance Morgan made me cry every day, yet laugh. Emily Kennedy made sure I never gave up on myself. - Kaliah Holloman-Pittman

Philpot and Chad Jones. - Payton Watson

Coach Chad and Mrs. Lori had the biggest impact on me at my life at CCHS. Coach Chad is one of the smartest men I have ever met and Mrs. Lori is one of the greatest people I have ever met. These two have changed my life forever and I will never forget them. - Lucas McCoy

Ms. Molly Daugharty, for going above and beyond to teach the individual as well as the class. - Brandon Morse

Mr. Tolle because he would act out any book to make it fun. - Marcus Millsaps

Emily Tomlinson because she allowed CNA students to understand the medical field and was always there when anyone needed help. David Tolle due to the way he taught and compared our readings to today's world and current situations. - Tiffany Morris

Mr. Tolle because he actually teaches. - Nate Mow

Philpot because he taught us how to do a lot of stuff. - Stephen Selph

Philpot because he teaches you how to work. - Darin Smith

Mrs. Lori and Mr. Tolle have had the biggest impact on me. They have taught me a lot along the way about respect and how to deal with real life situations. - Chassidy Rivers

Mrs. Emily Kennedy taught me how to never give up on what I want most in life. She will give anything to see you succeed. Ms. Molly Daugharty was by far my favorite teacher. She is strong, hard working, and determined. I hope that one day I can become half of the woman she is. - Callie Chauncey

Mrs. Hart and Mr. O'Neal because they are the sweetest teachers. I will miss them the most. - Grace Burns

Mary Hart because she has always been there to help me in any way possible, and she's also the best math teacher in the whole world. - Logan Brown

Mrs. Martha Register because she always keeps going and doesn't give up. - Jaquon Gaines

Mr. Tolle. Although he was always on the strict side, he always kept the class busy and entertaining. Mr. Tolle is very devoted to his teaching career. - Matthew Allen

Mrs. Emily Kennedy, Coach Lee Douglas, and Mr. David Tolle. They have always pushed me to be great and are always there when you need them. - Kenvojzia Nixon

Emily Kennedy because she was always so encouraging and the only one I actually loved. I loved Mr. Tolle, also. - Tyasia McCoy

Mr. Tolle because he always motivated his students to do better. - Jonathan Moore

Emily Kennedy, Terrence George, and Trent Hatton. I formed a bond with them and they taught me that there is more to life than just football. - Dantonio Robinson
