Your friend, Lacey Williams

Dear Santa,
It's your dear and close friend, Mrs. Brenda Moody. This could be my very last group of students that I will write and let you know how well they have behaved this year. Another year has gone by so fast and once more I have some wonderful and loving students in my class. I told them that you and I had a personal relationship and I was writing to let you know just how good they've been this year, even though some have been sort of bad. I told them they had a little time to straighten up before your arrival if they've been to bad. I am once again blessed to have such a loving group of students that are very energetic, full of ambition, and loving. I hope mom and dad get in a hurry and get on the good list cause the stories I've heard would make Santa check his list twice.(LOL) Santa I want you to be sure to bring my students some new crayons and glue sticks and don't leave off a single thing from their list because they really are special to me and I love them dearly. Parents I want to thank you for allowing me the opportunity to teach and share in your child's journey through their education process. Santa, I truly hope you can help out all the parents with the list of stuff they are asking for. I hope you can bring them something that can help them learn their alphabets and numbers. I am working so hard to help them with this but it's really hard.

Santa if you and your elves can stop all the hard work for a brief moment and say a prayer for our nation and this whole world it would mean so much to me. I want you to fill the homes with not only joy but with much love also. Love is one of the greatest commandments of them all and without love there's nothing, no peace, joy or happiness. Because of the love our God the father sent to earth, that was born in a manager we now have a right to the greatest gift of all, EVER-LASTING LIFE.

JESUS is the REASON for this Holiday Season. Let us be Christ like and fill this season with love unconditional. Santa I'm so blessed to have a man by the name of Mr. Alvin Moody in my life to share my joy with and if you would tell your reindeer not to worry cause I told him and A.J. to hold off on killing deer right now cause I don't want them to make a mistake and shoot Rudolph, Dasher, Dancer, Prancer, Vixen, Comet, Cupid, Donner or Blitzen. When they see deer that have big racks, they shoot to kill. So tell them to bring it on, they are safe for the journey. I am so blessed to be able to work with a wonderful group of people that are so bonded that we have become like one big happy family. Yes, here at McLain Attendance Center we are one big happy family that care about and love one another. That is what make our school so special, the love that it holds. Santa if you will please don't forget my grandkids this year, Jamyia Moody, Kaden Dixon, Shanya, McLeod, Lucious Moyer, Aryana Dixon and Brycie Dixon. I told them I would let you know personally what they wanted this year. May all the boys and girls be blessed with a wonderful Christmas this year. Let us not forget the real reason for the season, as we should celebrate Jesus everyday of our lives. Be blessed and have a very Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year. See you when you get to McLain Santa, and have a safe journey.

Your dear friend,
Mrs. Brenda Moody

Dear Santa,
I have been a good boy this year. I would like dinosaurs, a train, and a toy monster truck. I will leave you chocolate chip cookies and some brownies and some milk.

Love, Christian Cooley
