EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Deputy Sheriff

JOB DESCRIPTION
Patrol assigned areas of the Laurens County to serve the public as needed, preserve order and prevent or discover the commission of crimes and/or unsafe conditions in the community. Respond to calls for service and evaluate the situations quickly and objectively. Take appropriate actions to resolve matters in a firm, courteous and tactful manner with respect for the rights of others. Enforce state statutes, traffic laws and county ordinances by apprehending violators, making physical arrests, issuing citations, and/or placing charges as appropriate and necessary. Safely operate assigned patrol vehicle and other vehicles under routine and adverse driving conditions. Generate offense and incident reports and other related reports in a legible, accurate and timely fashion. Testify in courts of law, depositions, and other legal proceedings. Read and maintain up-to-date knowledge of departmental directives and policies, bulletins and applicable laws. Act in civil emergency situations to aid the public with first aid, evacuations by carrying or retrieving victims, and carrying and using emergency equipment in all types of weather. Provide general traffic direction and escorts for funerals, parades or other community activities as needed. Adhere to any assigned duties at the direction of the Sheriff.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS
