

NEW YEAR'S EVE AT THE BOWLING ALLEY

The Kershaw Bowling Alley tried something new and extended their hours until 11 p.m. on New Year's Eve. The extended hours paired nicely with the SpareTime Grill's dinner special of Prime Rib and crab cakes. A great option for families looking for something fun and close to home – a night of great food and even better entertainment. The bowling alley was decorated in a Mardi Gras theme with beads scattered on all the tables and where when the disco ball lit up it was a great fun atmosphere. The Kershaw Community Center was a happening place on New Year's Eve! (Submitted by Dayna Singleton)

Eulogy by Sylvia Parker Rambo his birth. Grandpa Zach Parker was 41 at the time his father died. My daddy, T. J. Parker, Britton Parker, my Great-Grandfather, died October 21, 1913. He was 78 or very close to it. We know he was born in October 1835, but not the day of

WHERE DID THAT COME FROM?

Thought we were just to have a rainy and wet day on Friday, but it became so much more. The weather took down several tree limbs and uprooted trees around town. The score boards at the Kershaw Bowling Alley were also affected but parts were quickly found to repair them for the upcoming week. Reports of roof damage from the winds were also seen around town.
