

Michael Mckelvy Cody Wolfe

"To the world my son is just a sailor but to me that sailor is my world"

- Sailor Mom Motto.

This is my U.S Navy son Airman Michael Mckelvy. He grew up in Choctaw until he was in the 7th grade and we moved to Harrah and he graduated from Harrah high school in 2018, soon after joining the Navy.

His dad and sister are Choctaw high school graduates class of 1993 and class of 2013, so he has deep roots there in Choctaw.

Cadet 3rd Class Madelyn Duckworth, Choctaw graduate 2018.

Madelyn just finished up her first year of academics attending the United States Air Force Academy in Colorado Springs. Madelyn is part of the Falconry team there at USAFA, and will remain on the team until graduation. She is part of the Schulte Assembly and has traveled to Washington DC and New York for leadership conferences. This summer she will spend continuing her experiences and education. She will be taking Jump, where she will have 5 jumps out of a plane. Madelyn will also be taking survival training this summer and will be working with the Falconry program during her last summer session.

Bradley H. Hausman

Bradley Hausman

U.S. Air Force Airman Bradley H. Hausman graduated from basic military training at Joint Base San Antonio-Lackland, San Antonio, Texas.

The airman completed an intensive, eight-week program that included training in military discipline and studies, Air Force core values, physical fitness, and basic warfare principles and skills.

Airmen who complete basic training also earn four credits toward an associate in applied science degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Hausman is the son of Richard G. Hausman of Jones, Okla., and Stacy L. Jeffries of Choctaw, Okla.

He is a 2018 graduate of Choctaw High School, Choctaw, Okla.
