

NRG to perform at TT

The Branson based group, NRG, is scheduled to perform at the 74th annual Turkey Trot festival on Friday, October 11, from 1:00-3:00 p.m.

NRG was founded in 2010 when youngest members were just seven and eight years old. Since then, NRG has play numerous fairs and festivals, fundraisers and local venues throughout southwest Missouri and Arkansas. Their music covers over four decades of top hits of Classic Rock, Pop and Country that appeals to the young and old alike.

The young, talented group is writing their own songs as well, and in 2018 won second in the Southwest Missouri Amateur Songwriters Contest.

You may recognize some of the members from shows in Branson. As an added value, the band can provide sound and lights for most venues. Band members are John Michael Judah and brothers, Erich and Sean Campbell, and sisters, Carli and Kira Allen. The band can be contacted at thebandnrg@yahoo.com or 417-545-1779.

Legion to host pancake breakfast

The American Legion Post #61 will host the 17th annual Pancake Breakfast both Friday, Oct. 11 and Saturday, Oct. 12 during Turkey Trot. From 7-10 a.m. on Friday and 7-9 a.m. on Saturday the Legion will serve sausage, pancakes, biscuits with gravy, orange juice, and coffee. Breakfast is all you can eat! The cost is $6 for adults and $3 for children! The Legion Hut is on the north side of Highway 62 on the east side of Town Branch creek, a short block from the Yellville square.

Changes happening in Rotary Beer Garden

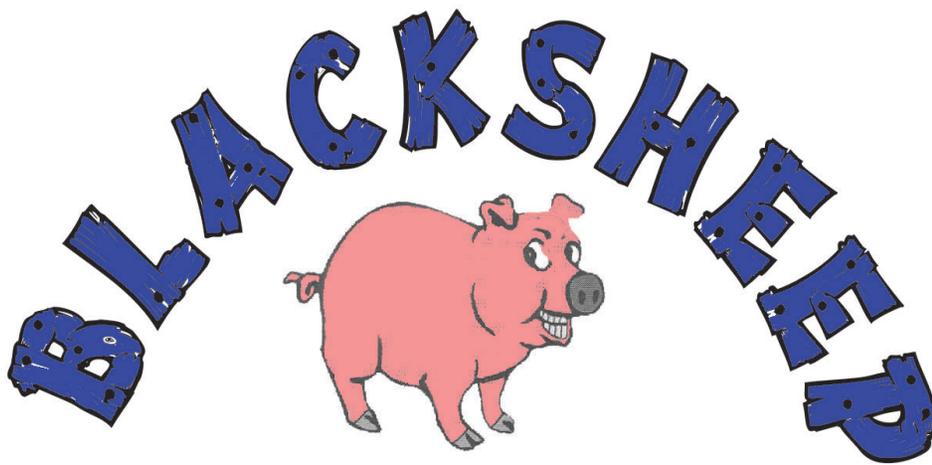

This year's festival will showcase several changes to the Rotary sponsored Beer Garden. First, the location will be different. The tent is moving from the northwest corner of the square to the southeast corner just south of the music stage. A more convenient spot to relax, listen to live music, and enjoy a beer or a glass of wine.

Second, the beer tent will offer domestic light beer, domestic premium beer, red and white wine. Rotary also has traded brats and pretzels for snacks and will retire the Oktoberfest theme.

New Countrygrass band to perform

The New Countrygrass band will take to the Turkey Trot stage on Friday, October 11, from 4:00-6:00 p.m. This is a group of old friends, bringing the best in bluegrass, country and R&B for your listening pleasure! Come out and enjoy the fun and listen to the great sounds of this country grass band.
