

Turkey Trot committee recognized

“This year’s Turkey Trot Festival would not happen without the effort of the whole Club,” states President Blake Brinegar. “The real driving force has been the work of the committee. This year there was no road map to a successful festival making the task more difficult.” Under the direction of Festival Chairman Warren Hemm subcommittees were established. “That is where the real contributions came from,” says Hemm.

Committee members and key contributors: Ron McPherson coordinated the sale of food booths and community booths.

Mike Hulgan accepted the responsibility of hiring bands, lining up stage acts and getting the square ready for crowds.

Jennifer Johnson and Emily Smith are handling T-shirts and buttons from logo development to the new online sales capability to festival weekend sales. Smith is also handling the 5k Run

Bob and Carol King led the successful sponsor and advertising sales effort. Carol also is instrumental using Mid-Marion County Rotary Club’s Facebook page to promote the festival and provide information.

Travis Doshier is the keeper of all things financial. Doshier provides ongoing financial information for planning and decision making as well as keeping track of the progress.

Alesia Owen, Jaime Morrow, Tim Kelly, Stan Duffy, David Doshier, Jason Johnson, Stephanie Duffy and David Drake all have been active in making this year a successful one with many others.

Mike Hulgan and Dick Wendel assumed leadership in the evolution of the beer garden.

Warren Hemm is overseeing the parade.

Thank you, Mid-Marion County Rotary Club and special thanks to these Rotarians for taking the lead making the longest running festival in the state a success.
