

Allen & Allen Family Dentistry

Where you're treated like family

Located at 140 Main Cross St. in Hawesville, KY, Allen & Allen Family Dentistry has been serving the dental needs of the local community with quality care and compassion for 36 years.

The family practice prides itself on providing cutting-edge dental care in a calm, clean atmosphere. The practice participates in most dental insurance plans and will schedule dental emergencies within one working day.

"We treat the whole patient, not just their teeth. We do a complete evaluation of their medical status including medical history, medication evaluation, physician consultation and blood pressure monitoring at no extra charge to the patient," Drs. Walt and Patti Allen say. "We are proud to be apart of this community and its an honor to provide our services."

Allen & Allen Family Dentistry also welcomes new patients and looks forward to the future of family dentistry.

Drs. Walt and Patti always strive to improve the services they offer and go beyond their licensure requirements to take quality continuing education classes in an effort to provide the best services possible to their patients.

Taking care of your teeth and gums is important in many ways and good oral care can help maintain good overall health of our bodies. So remember to brush your teeth at least twice a day.
