

A Look Back In Time FROM MY WINDOW

JANUARY 10, 1974

By I. C. TOOWELL

Several persons were running the Courthouse Monday morning holding their hands in the air, swearing they had never fought a duel and wondering what that had to do with becoming an official of Russell County.

Sheriff Art Ragle reported to his office Monday morning as ole IC visited the new Sheriff, we noted not only was the office cleaned out, but, that it had some new furniture. Placed in the office was the Sheriff, his wife, the office deputy, and a baby bed. It seems odd to this old country boy that a new sheriff would bring his wife and a baby bed to work the first day. Apparently the sight of the baby bed shocked the Sheriff a little bit because he was so nervous and confused he could not open his safe. Ah, well, we are sure the sheriff will solve the case of the baby bed and the unlocked safe.

Our friend, Kermit Mann, County Court Clerk, witnessed a sight last Saturday that needs to be passed on to the residents of the county. Not only did he witness it but he photographed it. Saturday was clean-up day for those persons leaving office, as they arranged for the officers-elect to take over. This included Judge Johnson and Judge Terri Flanagan.

It seems that Judge Johnson was not leaving soon enough for Judge Flanagan and Kermit snapped the accompanying photo as Flanagan physically rolled Johnson for the Judge's office.

Someone Needs to Hear "I Love You"

A text message appeared that made my day. It was a simple, "I love you!" It wasn't about romantic love. It was about agape love, which I believe is the highest form of love. The message came while I was in a meeting. My reaction to the message was profound. In that moment, I realized the importance of hearing those words. We often tell each other in a cursory way when we hang up from a phone call, "Luv you" and a, "you too". It seems sufficient enough for daily life. I learned I need more. Who needs to hear an "I love you" from you - a genuine expression of your love for them. Text them now; don't wait...

other hand is pure and transparent. It is always present; It resides in your spirit.

First Corinthians 13:4-8 provides a perfect description for agape love: "Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil, but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails."

My hope for you is that you grow in Love this season through awakened eyes. And so, be Grateful in all things, Live in Joy, Peace, Belief and Grace. Love God and People. Amen.

"Being deeply loved by someone gives you strength, while loving someone deeply gives you courage." -Lao Tzu

What is an expression of your love? To love someone is to make them feel extraordinarily special. After all, love is the greatest gift you can give! To truly love someone is to treat them with the highest regard without exception. Love should be expressed continually. There are many ways to love someone. Unconditional love is given without expectation; it's a gift. If you expect the gift back, it's not a gift at all. Maya Angelou, as I have quoted many times, in essence says, people will always remember the way you make them feel. So, how do you make the people you love feel?

"Let us always meet each other with smile, for the smile is the beginning of love." - Mother Teresa

Agape love is the ultimate gift. Agape love endures time. Agape love is forever. Agape love is God's love - a spiritual love. Spiritual love is love, without any rules, conditions, limitations or neediness. Human love says: 'I will love you if you show up on time, take the trash out or dress in the way I want.' Sometimes love gets mixed up with a lot of conditions. Spiritual Love on the
