Multiple injured in single vehicle collision

Trooper Ricky Cross is investigating a single vehicle injury collision that occurred on June 9th, 2019 at approximately 3:48 PM CST, four miles east of Edmonton on the Louie B. Nunn Cumberland Parkway.

Parkway when a back tire blew out. Taylor lost control of the vehicle causing the vehicle to exit the roadway overturning several times.

Six occupants were transported by EMS to TJ Sampson in Glasgow and one by private vehicle. Some passengers were belted, some were not. The passengers were: Neal Shoemaker age 59 of Somerset, Jonas Hatcher age 34 of Campbellville, Shirley Osbourne age 66 of Campbellville, Lucinda Robinson age 74 of Campbellville, Shirley Thomas age 72 of Greensburg, and Christen Anthony age 33 of Greensburg. Trooper Cross was assisted on the scene by Sgt. Adam Likins, Metcalfe County Fire and EMS.

Ask Dr. Angelia Gratitude and Appreciation

For every breath, for every day of living- this is my Thanksgiving! Too many blessings, too little appreciation And I know that kind of notion, well, it just ain't cool. So send me back to Sunday school. Because I'm tired of waiting for Reason to arrive - It's too long we've been living these unexamined lives... Don Henley (2000)

my momma - she didn't say it first; however, she did say it often. And so it stuck with me. And we all need to stop, sometime, before we drop!

One looks back with appreciation to the brilliant teachers, but with gratitude to those who touched our human feelings...warmth is the vital element for the growing plant and for the soul of the child. Carl Jung

According to Stacey Kennelly (2012), while "Stop and smell the roses" is a cliché, there is research to support taking time to enjoy nature's gifts may lead towards greater life satisfaction. Kennelly's study in the Journal of Personality and Individual Differences, suggests that appreciating beauty and people in our lives may offer greater life happiness. Professor Nancy Fagley (2002), at Rutgers University surveyed

We rush through our lives, meeting our obligations and doing everything at such a frantic pace. We run through our days and rarely take time to stop, be in the moment, experience and appreciate nature's beauty as gifts. Yesterday as I traveled home from a weekend filled with teenagers, there was a beautiful rainbow to punctuate the day. I wondered how many people saw it as we rush through our days with no time left - as the cliché goes: "To stop and smell the roses" For which I must reference
