C-ville Universirty Chapel is open to public

BY JOAN MCKINNEY
CU COORDINATING DIRECTOR

Campbellsville University's Chapel Series for spring semester 2019 has been announced, according to Ed Pavy, director of campus ministries at the university.

All chapels are free and open to the public each Wednesday at 10 a.m. in Ransdell Chapel at 401 N. Hoskins Ave., Campbellsville.

Chapel is designed to provide opportunities for corporate worship and exposure through a variety of informative speakers and presentations, Pavy said.

All chapel programs are televised live on WLCU (Comcast Cable channel 10 and digital channel 23.0) and are streamed live on the internet at wlcuv.com. "Jesus: Our Hope" is the theme for the semester taken from 1 Peter 1:3-6.

The schedule of speakers for the semester include: Jan. 9, senior staff of the university;

Jan. 16, Wesley Paul, founder and director, Wesley Paul International Ministries; Jan. 23, Martin Luther King Jr. Chapel Service featuring Dr. F. Bruce Williams, senior pastor at Bates Memorial Baptist Church in Louisville, Ky.; and Jan. 30, Darrell Locke, associate professor of social work at Campbellsville University;

Feb. 6, Dr. Ellen DiGiosia, Center for Biblical Equality speaker, pastor of First Baptist Church, Jefferson City, Tenn.; Feb. 13, Dr. Billy Compton, who attended Campbellsville College in 1962, and pastor of Muldraugh Hill Baptist Church; Feb. 20, Black History Month Chapel Service, Dr. Gerald Smith, professor of history at University of Kentucky; and Feb. 27, Liz Encinia, executive director-treasurer, Kentucky Women's Missionary Union;

March 6, spring break, no chapel; March 13, Cora Renfro, 1969 Campbellsville College graduate, adjunct instructor in art at CU and retired art teacher at Taylor County High School; March 20, #CUontheGO, stories from student mission teams; and March 27, Dr. Elijah Brown, general secretary, Baptist World Alliance;

April 3, Dr. Matthew Sleeth, founder and executive director, BlessedEarth.org; April 10, Dr. Joel Car-wile, pastor of First Baptist Church, Athens, Ala.; April 17, Holy Week Chapel Service, the Rev. Michael Rice, pastor of First Baptist Church, Glasgow, Ky.; and April 24, Honors and Awards Day.

The Ten Commandments

Thou shalt have no other gods before me.

Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image.

Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.

Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.

Honor thy father and thy mother.

Thou shalt not kill.

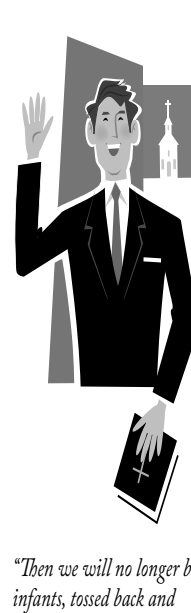

Thou shalt not commit adultery.

Thou shalt not steal.

Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.

Thou shalt not covet.

The fact that people can believe things which are easily shown to be false only illustrates how naïve and gullible we can be. This inability to distinguish truth from falsehood is something which we see most clearly in children. Young children will believe almost anything (e.g., the tooth fairy, the Easter bunny, and Santa Claus, to name just a few). As children get older, we expect them to discern truth from falsehood, and to tell the truth. Some parents question the wisdom of lying to children about such things as Santa Claus, as it sends several questionable messages. As children grow out of the naïvete of early childhood, we teach them to be critical and discerning, for example, telling them not to trust strangers, and requiring them to tell the truth at all times. Like the little boy who cried wolf, we have trouble trusting those who have repeatedly deceived us. We are not relativists in our everyday life, knowing that there is an objective truth about factual matters. And while it may be wise to suspend judgement on some issues until the facts are better known, we should not deceive ourselves into believing that there are alternative versions of reality. Truth is one. — Christopher Simon	GREENSBURG BAPTIST CHURCH Sunday School - 8:45 AM, CT Worship Service - 10:00 AM, CT Sunday Evening - 6:00 PM, CT Wednesday Service - 6:00 PM, CT	BETHLEHEM BAPTIST Church With A Difference Sunday School - 8 a.m. CT Worship Service - 9 a.m. CT Sunday Night Encounter - 6 p.m. CT Wednesday Service - 6 p.m. CT 525 Temperance Rd • Greensburg 270-932-7930
