Green County hosted the Fifth Region All 'A' Classic tournament January 15-18.

The Lady Dragons played the Campbellsville Lady Eagles in the first round. They stacked on a number of early three point baskets to quickly build a solid lead.

Kylie McCubbins and Tanlee Hudgins hit two apiece, Gracie Thompson with one.

Hudgins led the team with a varsity career-high 17 points. Katlyn Milby worked hard in the post and scored 12. Other Lady Dragons who scored included: Kylie Jackson-4, Gracie Parrott-2, and Thompson-7.

Thompson led the team with 9 rebounds.

They advanced to the Fifth Region All 'A' Championship game with a 54-32 win over the Lady Eagles.

It was a physical game for the Lady

Dragons in the championship game against the Bethlehem Lady Banshees. The Banshees' quick passes and quicker shot releases proved a challenge for the Lady Dragons' defense. They cut the lead to 12 in the fourth quarter, but fell 46-58.

Grace Patterson was named to the All A-Academic team. Underclassmen Hudgins and Milby both received plaques when they were announced to the All A-Tournament team.

Stats were unavailable at time of publication.

The Lady Dragons are scheduled to play at home Friday, January 25 against Hart County. Game time is set for 5:30 p.m. CT. The Dragons play at 7 p.m.
