

Prom-posals are definitely "a thing"

Will you go to prom with me?

Basketball player Brody Bush "prom-posed" to cheerleader Brooke Rainwater at the ballgame Saturday night, with a sign that said "We will be stuntin' if you will go to prom with me."

Anna Anderson was "prom-posed" to by fellow cheerleader Taybren Manners last week. Known for his stunts, Taybren's sign said, "I don't want to fly solo to prom."

Mason Stone asked Abby Knoy to prom last week with a Office-themed prom-posal. Knoy, a huge fan of the show, "The Office," said yes.

Cole Edmonds asked Mikka Thompson to prom with a softball-themed promposal. "You strike me as the girl I'd like to take to prom," complete with favorite ballpark snacks and softball necessities.

Isaiah Young asked Romana Fernandez to prom with a cork board, pictures, and PROM balloons and the big question, "Can you picture us at prom?"

Heaven Cooper, left, asked Haley Johnson, to prom on January 23 at bowling practice for region competition. The sign said, "I know we're Bowling Buddies, but how about prom pals."

Armed with a basketball and poster, Colton Moore waited patiently in the cafeteria for #11, Kiley McCubbins, at the conclusion of a Lady Dragons' basketball game.
