been employed the last 16 years with the Raleigh Police Department and in 2013 was awarded the department’s highest honor, The Medal of Valor.

He is a specialized instructor in firearms, subject control arrest techniques, physical fitness, pepper spray, ground fighting, crowd control and chemical munitions.

The police sergeant is a military veteran, having served in the United States Marine Corps.

The Greensburg native is also a co-founder/owner of a small product development and training company, SpearPoint Technologies LLC, that assists LLC in protecting themselves and provides classes and training to individuals and companies.

He is married to his wife of 17 years, Tiffany, and they have two children, son James and daughter Kylei.

Police Sergeant Gartin delivered a powerful and inspiring message, directed primarily toward the young people in attendance.

The sergeant shared his life experiences with the audience and spoke of the five truths to accomplishing one’s goals.

His concluding remarks were, “Achieving success is not a matter of luck, but rather a matter of delivered and focused process, coupled with sound decision-making. Success is not an accident; it’s a result. So be mindful by the truth, set goals and attack them, understanding that wanting something is not enough, it’s only part of the process. Base your decisions and make your decisions well beyond the implications of the day.

Never mind the nay-sayers, your future is in your own hands and most important, spend your time at the top of the hill. Build a foundation of faith and seeking God’s purpose for your life. It’s my prayer that all of you are blessed with the wonderful experience of setting and achieving your goals.”

Reflecting on the importance of celebrating Black History Month, LCF President Jerry Cowherd provided a thought taken from part of the “Circle of Life” lyrics of the famous musical “The Lion King” which said, It’s the circle of life, and it moves us all, through despair and hope, through faith and love, till we find our place, on the path unwinding.

“Dr. King and others laid the foundation for a better society and it’s up to us to know our history and improve upon the many opportunities that have been presented to us as a people,” he said.
