Dr. Klobnak to present CU organ recital

BY WHITLEY HOWLETT
CU STUDENT WRITER

Dr. Zachary A. Klobnak, college organist and instructor of organ, harpsichord and piano at Centre College in Danville, will be presenting a guest organ recital on Tuesday, Feb. 12 at 8 p.m. in Ransdell Chapel, 401 N. Hoskins Ave., Campbellsville, Ky.

He will be performing music by William Mathias, Rachel Laurin, William Walton, and Johann Sebastian Bach. The concert is free and open to the public.

Originally from Iowa, Klobnak has had the opportunity to study in many different states and countries. He holds degrees from Luther College (BA), the University of Florida (MM) and the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign (DMA), where he held the Brownson Fellowship for organ studies.

He has studied under organ teachers Dana Robinson, Laura Ellis and Gregory Peterson; he has studied harpsichord with Kathryn Reed and choral conducting with Donald Nally, Fred Stoltzfus and Timothy Peter. Klobnak has also studied French organ literature and design in Paris and in the Alps region of France.

Klobnak is also the director of music and organist at the Presbyterian Church of Danville, where has many administrative and creative roles. He directs the music program, administers the "Music on Main Street" concert series and plays the church's Taylor & Boody pipe organ. He has also held church music positions in Illinois, Florida and Iowa.

An active recitalist, Klobnak is a member of the American Guild of Organists and the Presbyterian Association of Musicians.

For more information about the recital, contact Dr. Wesley Roberts, professor of music, at (270) 789-5287 or mwroberts@campbellsville.edu.

The Ten Commandments
Thou shalt have no other gods before me.
Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image.
Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vain.
Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.
Honor thy father and thy mother.
Thou shalt not kill.
Thou shalt not commit adultery.
Thou shalt not steal.
Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour.
Thou shalt not covet.

(Exodus 20:3-17)
