Tessa Emmons places a bid. $1,349 was raised during the middle school volleyball's pink-out event Feb. 19. All funds raised were donated to the late high school's volleyball coach Lynne Givens favorite organization the Twisted Pink Foundation.

Kameron Jackson returns the ball for a Lady Dragon point. It was another sweep for the seventh and eighth grade Lady Dragons as they defeated Campbellville. The CKMSAC tournament is being held next week. The first round for Green County seventh and eighth grade teams will be March 5 with location to be announced.

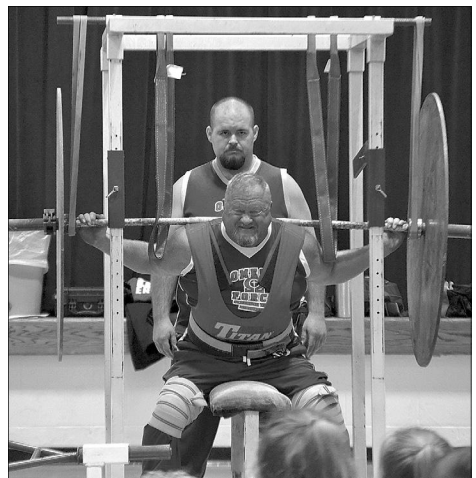

Upward Awards Program

Upward athletes participated in a tug of war during the Awards Night program on Saturday night. The program was held at Green County Middle School.
