

Ag Tag program

Photo submitted

Green County FFA members, along with Kentucky Agriculture Commissioner Ryan Quarles, show off the Farm License/Ag Tags in front of the Green County Courthouse Monday. With a donation of $10, the purchase of this tag will support the Kentucky agriculture youth programs of FFA, 4-H and KDA.

DYW Junior set for March 23; registration now

The Green County Distinguished Young Woman Junior program will be held Saturday, March 23 at the Green County Primary School.

The program is a camp for girls in grades preschool through fifth grade.

Registration will begin at 11 a.m. CT with the camp from 12 to 4:30 p.m.

The program will be presented to the public at 4:30 p.m. CT.

The cost is $40 with a discount offered for siblings. Participants will receive a shirt, lunch, snacks, a medal presented on stage, and two tickets to the program at 4:30 p.m.

Students will learn a short opening, fitness, talent as a group, and self-expression routines. The girls will perform the routines they have learned for family and friends.

The performance is not judged. The goal is to offer a fun-filled day with friends while gaining self-confidence.

The DYW Junior participants will also perform at Green County Distinguished Young Woman program in September and walk in the Cow Days parade.

For more information call 270-932-1374.

Interest meeting at GCHS March 20

Green County Schools will host a meeting Wednesday, March 20 to gauge interest for new programs including bass fishing, drama, soccer and wrestling.
