

Weather Record
Date	3-26	3-27	3-28	3-29	3-30	3-31	4-1
High	50.3	62.1	69.8	65.6	71	45.1	48.4
Low	31.2	25.8	36.2	52.4	38.6	31.3	24.3
Prec	0	0	0	0.06	0.29	0	0

Reporting period for each day runs from midnight to midnight. Statistics from Kentucky Mesonet's Bengal Station.

Truth & Consequences give students close look

Greensburg police officer Matt Matney explains to 9th grade student Wade Teets the consequences from marijuana use which resulted in a fire started among stored hay in a neighbor's barn.

Freshman Zack Ferguson and parent volunteer Crystal Hedgespeth listened to District Judge Mike Hall, Jr. explain the procedures and consequences when one is charged with marijuana possession second offense. The Truth and Consequences program was held at the Green County Judicial Center March 26 and gave students a glimpse of real-life scenarios.

Photos by Clevis Jeffries

Court Designated Worker Terra Cowherd talks to 9th grade student James Curry about teen alcohol intoxication.

Paramedic Roger Cundiff demonstrated intubation as freshmen Devin Vandeboss and Kyra Comstock observed.

Courtney Edwards, Certified Domestic Violence Advocate, of the Springhaven Domestic Violence Program, and Lindsay Landis, Green County Victims' Advocate, address dating violence through the program, In Her Shoes, to 9th graders March 26 during the Green Co. KY-ASAP-sponsored Truth and Consequences event.

Chorner Carol Ray, left, Funeral Director Walt Parrott, Jr. and Rev. Todd Young discussed scenarios with 9th graders during a Truth and Consequences session. Pictured also are students Harrison McCoy, center, Creighton Robertson and Shelby Mays.

Rev. Matthew Ingram, pastor of Greensburg Cumberland Presbyterian Church, holds a debriefing session with 9th grade students during the Truth and Consequences program held at the Green Co. Judicial Center Mar. 26.

Libby Mehas, of Adanta, explains the consequences to 9th grader Summer Scott and parent volunteer MaKayla Jessie concerning the discovery of alcohol in the school parking lot at lunchtime.

Deputy Sheriff Adam Rainwater talks with parent volunteer Joy Coffey and 9th grader Zach Jewell about drugs found inside a student locker during a drug search.

Investigator Brett Pitchford, from the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control, explains the role of ABC in the prevention of access to alcohol and tobacco by underage individuals.

GCHS Principal Ben Davenport, center, and Assistant Principal Hunter Jackson, discussed school policy concerning drug possession with freshman Tamlee Hudgins.