

Past and Present Spanish Honor Society students take a moment to smile at the conclusion of the induction ceremony.

Spanish Honor Society recognized

ANGELINA ALCOTT
SPORTS WRITER

Green County High School's Spanish Honor Society recently held their annual initiation ceremony for the Spanish Honor Society.

The Spanish Honor Society is a national honor society sponsored by the American Association of Teachers of Spanish and Portuguese. Once a chapter is created, it chooses a unique name that has to do with some aspect of Spanish history or culture.

Green County's chapter was founded in 2016 and chose the chapter name Pelayo. Pelayo is considered by some historians to be the first king of Spain, and they were founding the first chapter at Green County High School.

Lisa Weddle, in Green County High School's World Language Department and Spanish teach oversees the society.

"I used to sponsor just a Spanish Club," said Weddle, "I had always wanted to have a chapter here because I was initiated into Sigma Delta Pi (the college equivalent of SHS) at UK, and the experience made a great impression on me."

In order to be in the chapter a students must take at least three years of Spanish and meet the academic requirements of the chapter.

A spring initiation is held each year which also doubles as an honor court for the graduating seniors. Incoming students who cannot attend are initiated in the fall.

Photos by Angelina Alcott

Mikey Tafolla receives his graduation stole from Miss Weddle.

Spanish Honor Society President Thomas Stone says a few words during the induction ceremony of the new Spanish III Honor Society students. The ceremony was held May 15 in the high school library.

Green County School District recognizes Retirees

Photo by Clevis Jeffries

The Green County School District gave special recognition to its retirees at a luncheon for all school employees on May 22. Those honored for their years of service to the children of Green County were, front row from left, Sue Hall, Lanetta Davis, Tommy Davis, Mardena Compton, and Sandra Bell. Back row from left, Nina Scott, Debbie Thompson, Missi Suratt, Buffy Scantland, and Darlene Henderson. Absent from photo were: Cindy Houk and Teresa Tucker.

Master's Degree

Michelle Gorin recently received a master's degree in organizational leadership from Western Kentucky University. She is a graduate of Centre College. She is a marketing specialist in the Office of eCampus Learning at Eastern Kentucky University and resides in Lexington. She is the daughter of Walt and Anne Gorin.

Makenzie Keown hugs Spanish teacher Miss Weddle as she receives her certificate of Spanish III completion.

CU Kids College held in June, July

BY ARIEL C. EMBERTON
CU STUDENT WRITER,

Campbellsville University will host her annual Kids College and Jr. Kids College camps during the months of June and July.

Kids College and Jr. Kids College, on behalf of the Campbellsville University's Virginia Ponser Flanagan Technology Training Center, provides students, preschool through eighth grade, with opportunities to broaden the scope of their interests and interact with other young people.

There are three scheduled sessions to take place during the summer. The first Kids College is June 3-6 and will be for students in second through eighth grade. Each day's events will last from 1 p.m. until 3:45 p.m. Another session for second through eighth grade students is scheduled for July 15-18. Events for this week will last from 9 a.m. until 11:45 a.m.

Students will be allowed to pick two of the six offered classes in which to participate. The offered classes are as follows:
Sharp Shooting Archery; Cooking Up a Storm; Cool Scientist; Photography Class; Creative Art and Design Class; and Computer Programing.

The Jr. Kids College session will be June 17-20 from 1 p.m. until 3:45 p.m. and is open to those in preschool through first grade. Students will be rotated through all five classes being offered: Reading Times; Craft Time; Cool Scientist; Kindle Fun; and Tiny Tiger Archery.

Tuition for each camp is $75 per child and must be included with the registration forms. No refunds will be issued once the student is accepted into the program. Each program will be filled on a first-come, first-serve basis. A substitute class may be offered in place of a full class at the director's discretion. For more information call (270) 789-5396 or (270) 789-5400.

The completed registration form, application and consent form and payment should be mailed to the CUTTC at Campbellsville University Technology Training Center, 1 University Drive, UPO 779, Campbellsville KY 42718.