

District breakfast

Green County School District faculty and staff joined together last Tuesday for an appreciation breakfast prepared by the district’s administrators and kitchen staff. This year’s breakfast was sponsored by Limestone Bank with the bank giving away over $5,000 in t-shirts, water bottles full of supplies, and miscellaneous door prizes.

The annual breakfast is a special time of fellowship amongst the district’s employees and allows the district to introduce the new faculty and staff members to their colleagues. Superintendent Will Hodges used this time to issue a charge to employees to motivate them for the 2019-2020 academic year. By sharing pictures from his childhood and throughout his time as a student at Green County Schools, Hodges shared his personal story. His message was to remind employees that every student entering our buildings has a personal story and every single employee in the district helps to shape that story. “You can and do make a difference in that child’s life. Every employee is important and the job that you do is essential for our district.”

Beware of student loan repayment companies

If you’re paying back federal student loans, be wary of sales pitches from companies that offer to help you lower your payments, warns the Kentucky Higher Education Assistance Authority (KHEAA).

Some companies charge high fees for filling out forms that you can do for free. Many will want to charge monthly fees for monitoring your loans. Again, you can do that for free.

The best place to start is the servicer that the U.S. Department of Education has assigned your loan to. Your servicer can tell you what your options are and can help you with the forms you need. If you need help finding your servicer, you can go to www.inslds.ed.gov and retrieve your loan information.

You can also go directly to www.ed.gov and click on the link titled “Student loans.”

Under that link you’ll find links to detailed information about all of your options.

KHEAA is the state agency that administers Kentucky’s grant and scholarship programs, including the Kentucky Educational Excellence Scholarship (KEES). The agency also provides financial literacy videos at <http://itsmoney.kheaa.com> and free copies of “It’s Money, Baby,” a guide to financial literacy, to Kentucky schools and residents upon request at publications@kheaa.com.

KHEAA’s sister agency, the Kentucky Higher Education Student Loan Corporation (KHESLC), offers low-cost Advantage Loans to help students and parents pay for college or to refinance student loans. For more information about Advantage Loans, visit www.advantageeducation-loan.com.
