

The Lady Dragons were undefeated in Class A Region Tournament play Saturday in Bethlehem. In the semi-finals they swept Fort Knox 2-0 and sealed the Championship title with a 2-0 win against Campbellsville. They travel to Richmond Friday evening for Class A State.

Lady Dragons undefeated Class A Region

It has been a season of intensity, movement, and excitement for the Lady Dragons and they have no plans to slow down. The Lady Dragons offered up an exciting show Thursday evening at home against district rival LaRue County. The Lady Dragons defeated the Lady Hawks 3-1 in an exciting fashion.

Senior player Callie Bishop has enjoyed the season so far from all aspects.

“It is absolutely crazy that my senior year we have already met some big goals like going to state and the student section has to be the best,” said Bishop.

“They always participate and never look away from the game... even when we are down they pick us up.”

One of the goals Bishop refers to is their Class ‘A’ Region Tournament sweep in Bethlehem Saturday, September 7.

Green County spiked their way past Fort Knox (25-19, 25-13) and defeated Campbellsville (25-17, 25-15) in a 4-0 sweep to claim the Championship.

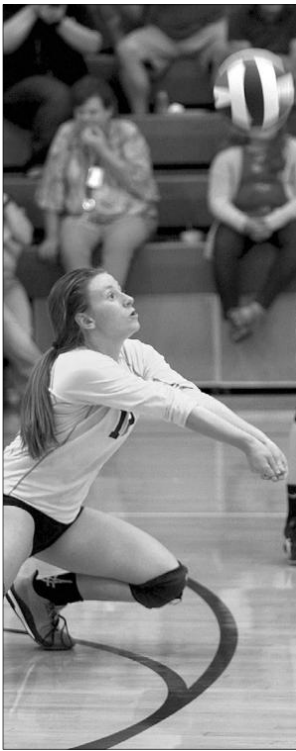

Emma Howell, Graysie Jagers, Hailee Corbin, and Lilly Squires were named to the All-Tournament team.

Head coach Donnie Jagers was pleased with his team’s performance this season.

“So far this season we are hitting our goals, undefeated in district and our win our Class A Region,” said Jagers. “This group is very competitive in practice and it’s carrying over in match play.”

He has high expectations for his team.
