

Cow Days Excitement

Gaye McCubbins presents Greensburg native, Tara Nepper, $500 cash from Cow Days 2019

David Davis, left, was at his Green River Beekeepers/Trammell Creek Handmade Knives booth Saturday when he shook hands with James Knight and won $50! Knight, who was the 2019 Record-Herald Cow Days Mystery Moo, had just taken a break from his new Time Out business on Main Street to enjoy Cow Days. Each Cow Days the tenth person to shake hands with the Mystery Moo on Saturday wins $50. The mission of the Mystery Moo is to inspire everyone to shake hands at Cow Days, the friendliest fall festival in the world! The Mystery Moo is a Cow Days tradition which began years ago when Dave Shuffett was the first Mystery Moo.

Jay Shofner presents Moe Pickett with a $100 gift card from Five Star for winning the hot dog eating contest. Pickett ate 10 1/2 hot dogs in the ten minute time limit.

Kendal Peer, left, Payton Forrest, and Abigail Jeffries worked the Stuff-A-Cow booth.
