2019 Cow Days draws thousands

Junior Rotary Club members lead the way in the Green County Cow Days 2019 Parade Saturday afternoon.

All smiles, Otha Ray Stearman waves to the crowd as he leads the parade as Grand Marshal. Jim Durham, the longest serving Rotarian in Kentucky was also grand marshal.

Hazel McCubbin, 11 months, took in all the sights of Cow Days Saturday morning from an Old Courthouse column. She is the daughter of Michael and Brittany McCubbin.

Kinsley Sharpe, 2, enjoys a lemon from the late Lew Edwards' Famous Fresh Squeezed Lemonade Stand.

The parade was full of local faces, dirt bikes, atvs and more.

The Shriners are always a Cow Days Parade favorite.

Ms. Hayli Osborne's kindergarten class pose with Annie the Cow. The students at GCPS appreciate the Rotary Club bringing Annie the Cow for a visit each year!
