Through the partnership with Green County Schools, the Healthy Kids Clinic provides nurses for all four schools in the Green County School District and other specialists to address student needs including nurse practitioners, behavioral and mental health counselors, and a case manager.

Ms. Donna Patterson, Instructional Supervisor, reviewed the 2018-2019 accountability data at Thursday night's meeting.

The data compared the district's performance versus the state average. Over the next several board meetings, principals will be presenting detailed data from their buildings pertaining to their specific performance and will be highlighting areas of emphasis for the remainder of the school year.

The Board adopted the second reading of the Absences and Excuses Policy.

Approval was given for two professional

Van Arsdale recognized by KLC

C.W. Van Arsdale, City of Greensburg Council Member, was among 51 city officials from across the state who were recently recognized for Excellence in City Governance by the Kentucky League of Cities. The City Officials Training Center Awards Program event was held during KLC's Annual Conference & Expo, Sept. 24 - 27 in Covington. The conference drew in nearly 500 city officials and leaders from across the commonwealth.

The City Officials Training Center is a voluntary education program administered by the Kentucky League of Cities. City officials can complete education levels by attending KLC events and by submitting outside training credit from other municipal training. There are four levels of achievement: Level I-Achievement in City Governance, Level II- Excellence in City Governance, Level III-Masters of City Governance and the newest designation- 'Certified Municipal Officer'.

"The COTC program provides a variety of training that better equips our city leaders across the state to serve their local communities. With this achievement and the amount of training it represents, citizens are the real winners because our communities are reaping the benefits of better informed leaders," said J.D. Chaney, KLC deputy executive director. "This is an impressive feat and a testament to the dedication of these city officials."

The Level II- Excellence in City Governance award requires the city official to attend 60 hours of approved training with two hours of ethics training.
