

Band to head to State Semi-Finals

The crowd sits still and silent as they watch the performance in its' entirety. Director Nathan Willoughby still holds a high importance on the word marching and band with music and while the props may be minimal, they make the needed impact and all the focus can be on the band's performance. The band will have a concert Monday, Oct. 28 at 6 p.m. CT at Green County Middle School.

The Marching Dragons hosted a community performance Friday night of their show, "The Grass ISN'T Always Greener," in front of a great crowd at Dragon Stadium.

On Saturday, the band traveled to Hopkinsville and performed in the KMEA Class A West Quarterfinals.

The band placed 7th overall, which qualifies them to advance to State Semi-Finals this Saturday in Bowling Green. The band performs at 10:45 a.m. at Greenwood High School, where they will compete against 15 other Class A bands for a chance to advance to State Finals that evening at WKU.

According to the band director, the last several years the band as been extremely close to advancing to Semi-Finals, being only .8 points from 8th place last season and only .4 in 2017.

After this weekend's KMEA State Marching Band Championships, the band will travel to Butler Traditional High School in Louisville to compete against 9 other Class A bands in Midstates competition on November 2, before wrapping up their season at Simon Kenton High School Nov. 9 in Midstates Championships competition.

Midstates will see the Marching Dragons compete against 26 other bands from Kentucky, Indiana and Ohio.

Locally, the band will have a concert Monday, Oct. 28 at 6 p.m.. Concert is free and held in the gym at Green County Middle School.

Nathaniel Clark watches drum major Sidney Jones hands to know when to start his musical piece on the keyboard.

Color Guard member Shana Judd moves fluidly through the routine, the Grass isn't Always Greener.

Photos by
Angelina Alcott

Guard and marching members move through the motions. The band hosted a community performance Friday evening in preparation for the Regional Competition on Saturday. The band qualified for the first time in five years and head to State competition Saturday at Greenwood High School.

Shuffett repeats in contest win

For the second consecutive week, Nadia Shuffett is the winner of the Record-Herald's football prognostication contest.

She missed two games in the Oct. 16 contest.

She wins two Green River Live tickets to the Heart of Kentucky Band, a buffet from Creekside Restaurant, a Phillips Lane gift certificate and a dinner from Lee's Famous Recipe.

She may call the Record-Herald office to arrange for prize pickup. *Please include a return address on all entries.

A Salute to our VETERANS

On November 11, Veterans Day, we pause to reflect on the courage, dedication and loyalty of our nation's military veterans. Throughout history, their hard work and sacrifice have kept us safe and protected our freedom.

Say thank you to the Veteran in your life by placing ad saluting them in our Veteran's Day issue.

Salutes can include the name of your veteran, their branch and rank as well as a personal message.

Veterans Day • Nov. 11

John Doe
Thanks for your service.
You will always be our hero.
Love,
Your family

U.S. Army

All ads must be submitted by 1 p.m. Nov. 1.

Stop by our office, call 270-932-4381 or e-mail advertising@record-herald.com for size options and prices.

Thanks, Veterans!

Team	Record	Avg. Off	Avg. Def	Last Weekend's Results	This Weekend
Holy Cross	6-2	31	17	Beat Fort Knox 54-6	Campbellville
Russell County	5-3	32	25	Beat Butler County 50-14	At Allen County
Hart County	3-5	25	36	Lost to Casey County 37-21	At Larue County
Taylor County	6-2	36	16	Lost to Glasgow 31-28	At Adair County
Campbellsville	6-2	41	21	Beat Bethlehem 48-42	At Holy Cross
Monroe County	4-4	19	29	Beat Metcalfe 33-12	Warren Central
Clinton County	5-2	24	12	Beat Bracken County 49-0	Edmonson County
Edmonson Co.	3-5	26	23	Beat Green County 39-8	At Clinton County
Metcalfe Co.	1-7	15	36	Lost to Monroe County 33-12	Green County
Clay County	5-3	31	23	Beat Perry County 48-20	Magoffin County
Green County	0-8	14	41	Lost to Edmonson County 39-8	At Metcalfe County