Go Dragons!

Jared, like others, has put in a huge off season. He has lived in the weight room and has bought into our team mission. He wants to be coached, he is a team guy and is getting more comfortable with offensive line play each day.

We've seen a lot of growth from Lindon over the past six months. His hard work has paid off in strength gains and mobility and will benefit he and his teammates. His hard work and abilities will enable him to find work on the offensive line and defensive line and also as an up-back at times.

The Dragons will play at Clay County
