Frymire Folklore Tidbits:

To treat ringworm apply green juice of a walnut

To cure hiccups, eat a tsp of peanut butter

For colds mix lemon juice or ACV with 1 tbs of honey

For insomnia drink a warm cup of apple cider

For dry skin, apply creamery butter

Mr. L.H. Frymire's folklore reached an audience from young to old. He never met a stranger and had a penchant for delivering good news. His grandfather Junius Frymire, M.D. passed down the medical texts from most of his folklore originates. After all, much of the medical science then was folklore

Thoughts to ponder: Old teachers never die, they just lose their class. Old burglars never die, they just steal away in the night. Old policemen never die, they just cop out. Old checker players never die, they just move.
