

World Grand Championship

Photos submitted

Billy and Gwenn Howard and Julie and Larry George of Howard Stables in Greensburg had another successful 2019 Show Season and World Celebration in Decatur, Ala. Julie George led the Yearling Filly Zorro's Evening Star to the title of Yearling World Grand Championship for owner Don Hancock of Princeton, Ky. This team ended a winning show season full of blue ribbons with the ultimate championship title. This win marked the third consecutive year for Julie to win the World Grand Championship Yearling title, each year with a different colt. Zorro's Evening Star is pictured with Billy and Gwenn Howard, Julie George, Randy Young and Annette England.

Sheeza Silver Sensation, also trained by Billy Howard, defended her world title by winning the Lite Shod Trail Pleasure Racking World Championship. This marked the third consecutive year in a row for Silver and Julie to win this title. Sheeza Silver Sensation is pictured with Billy and Gwenn Howard and Julie George
