

GCMS Dragons fall to Hornets

Photos by Angelina Alcott

As Green County moves the ball downcourt against a full court press, Kelson McKinney looks for an open teammate to drive and dish to Monday evening against the Metcalfe County Hornets. The Dragons' undefeated season came to a halt after the Hornets hit a three-point shot with 3.2 seconds left in the game to take a one point lead.

The Dragon defense double teams a Hornet to stifle the basket. Metcalfe County took an early 11-4 lead in the first quarter, Green County eighth grade answered the challenge and took over the lead, going into fourth quarter, led 39-27. Hornets cut the Dragon lead to two after a steal and basket, then sealed the 48-47 win with a three-point basket. The team hosts Russell County Thursday.

The atmosphere was pushed into over-drive Monday evening as the teams swapped basket for basket. Cheerleaders excitement and energy sparked a chain reaction through the crowd.

12-point buck
