

2019 FOOTBALL SCHEDULES

Proud to be a Dragon!

The graduation rate for students of Pickens County Schools has drastically improved since the 2002-03 school year. At the end of last school year, we proudly graduated 95.67% of our students compared to only graduating 64.3% in 2002-03. Our ultimate goal is to graduate 100% of our students, and until we achieve that goal, we will keep moving forward providing encouragement and resources to our kids remain in school.

We don't have just students, we have graduates! We salute you...

Did you know?

The school buses many Americans are accustomed to seeing in their neighborhoods trace their origins to educator and author Dr. Frank Cyr, Ph.D. Dr. Cyr specialized in rural education and, in 1939, organized a conference at Teachers College, Columbia University in New York City with the intention of standardizing transportation for students on their way to and from school.

Representatives from several notable corporations, including engineers from auto manufacturers Chevrolet, Dodge and Ford and paint experts from DuPont, attended the conference. The fruits of that conference are still paying dividends even now, as one of the more notable developments to result from the conference was the decision to paint buses yellow with black lettering to make them easier to see in the early morning and late afternoon.

That decision continues to protect the millions of school children who ride the bus to and from school today.
