Girl's State Delegates

Cutting Edge Technology

Card Catalogues have been replaced by computers that list all of the books available in the Belleview Middle School Library. Students use the computers to find the books that they want.

New Commissioners Take Oath

County Judge John Futch gives the oath of office to Belleview City Commissioners Ken Nadeau and Gene Hames who were re-elected without opposition. It is the first time that Belleview has not had a City election since 1976, when Roy Abshier, Stan Wilga and Frank Latarche were elected without opposition.
