On approaching the railroad tracks in West this past Sunday afternoon, I was surprised to see all of the equipment working on the repairs to the railroad tracks. They are repairing the tracks so the trains may safely pass through our town. It was interesting watching them work.

ersons was a special event that Inez attended with her daughter, Toni Borst last Thursday at Ole Miss. Their granddaughter, Allie Grace Borst, daughter of Toni and Orlando Borst, was inducted into the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

MARK YOUR CALENDERS for MAY 4, the day for the West Grammar School Reunion. Reservations are to be either mailed in or called into: Ruth Aldridge, P. O. Box 401, Thibodaux, LA, brought Glyn a raised garden bed so gardening would be easier for his papaw. Glyn was thrilled. The next event was the birth of another great grandson, Hayes Allen Kendrick. The parents are Courtney and Chaise Kendrick. Courtney is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Dickerson. Of course big sister Greta is thrilled. Last but certainly not the least for the Dickersons was a special event that Inez attended with her daughter, Toni Borst last Thursday at Ole Miss. Their granddaughter, Allie Grace Borst, daughter of Toni and Orlando Borst, was inducted into the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society.

Travel expenses?
 Dear Dave,
 I'm an admissions counselor for a university, and I make $37,000 a year. I spend a lot of time on the road, and I'm trying to get out of debt, but I have one credit card I'm still using for travel expenses. The university refunds me for these expenses, which always run $300 to $400 per trip, but usually it takes about three weeks for this to happen. Do you have any advice for someone in my situation?

If you put $500 into this account one time, you'll never have to save for it again. You'll use some of that money for your travel expenses—on your debit card—and when they reimburse you, you'll put the reimbursement check directly into your travel account. After you get the initial $500 in there, your travel account will run off your reimbursement checks.

Lots of people carry credit cards on the road for expenses, but often they'll end up buying things that aren't reimbursable. It happens to everyone who travels. Then, over time, you accidentally run up credit card debt. But when you use a debit card with an account that's completely separate, and you're not using it for anything except reimbursable travel expenses, it'll help you become a lot more disciplined with your purchases on the road.

Everyone who travels a lot does some stress eating and stress spending. Why? Because being on the road often, or for long periods of time, is no fun.

The only people who think travel for work is glamorous are those who don't do it for a living!

Roxanne
 Dear Roxanne,
 Let's set up an account, and prime the pump once. By this, I mean in the next few months I want you save up $500, then open a separate checking account for reimbursable travel expenses only. Make sure a debit card is attached to the account, too.
