

Partners Worldwide offers class

Special to The Clinton Courier

Starting in February, Partners Worldwide is bringing its sixth Business Training class to the Clinton area. Leaning on established best practices, a faith-based curriculum, and delivered by experienced business people, the twelve-week training is designed to help entrepreneurs to start or grow a successful business.

Partners Worldwide is a faith-based non-profit headquartered in Grand Rapids, Michigan. With a goal of ending poverty through business, Partners Worldwide encourages entrepreneurship and local economic development in more than thirty countries around the world.

Business Training begins February 18 at 6 p.m. at the Morrison Heights Mission Campus. Call Dennis Vander Molen at 601-720-8830 for any additional information and to sign up for the class.

Season ends for Arrows in playoffs at Madison Central and played well at the end of the season and the first game of the playoffs,” said Thomas, who will play soccer next year for Mississippi College.” We came a long way since the start of the season.”

Barefoot agreed. “As a team, we had a real good work ethic,” said Barefoot, a Northwest Community College football kicker signee. “Late in the season, when we learned to stay calm, we played well like we did against Oxford. We didn’t have our best game against Madison Central today.”

Wade feels good about the future of the program.

“Luke will be back. He was one of our team captains this year, and he has such a great work ethic. Miles will be back too; he has scored a lot of goals for us.”

“We are losing nine seniors, but we are going to good next year. We have five juniors, five sophomores and four freshman back.”

“We’re looking forward to next year.”

Serving as Arrows assistant coaches this year were Collins Lanyuy and Cory Jierski.
