

Citizens urged to help with litter control

Special to The Clinton Courier

Public Works and Parks/ Recreation crews work daily to collect litter from City streets and parks, but City officials emphasize they cannot eradicate litter without help from residents.

Citizens are encouraged to partner with the City of Clinton to keep the city beautiful and litter free, including taking the following litter prevention efforts:

1. Don't be a litter bug.
2. Keep a litter bag in your car, and hang on to litter until you find a garbage receptacle.
3. Make sure your trashcans have tight-fitting lids.
4. Secure all bags, and use twine to secure loose trash for curbside trash collection. Loose trash can fly out of garbage trucks if not bound or bagged.
5. Tie paper into bundles or place in paper bags before placing into curb-

- side recycling bins.
6. Ask business owners to keep loading docks clean and check dumpsters every day to make sure they are securely closed.
7. Ask businesses to collect loose litter in their parking lots.
8. Pick up litter when you see it.
9. Report litter and shoes on lines to Public Works via their work request form: <https://www.clintonms.org/.../publi.../report-issue-online-form/>.

Move Over, Sir! at Olde Towne Depot

Special to The Clinton Courier

In honor of March being Women's History Month, the Olde Towne Depot will celebrate women who have held critical roles in the operation and expansion of the railroad since the early 19th century. The groundbreaking women will be honored with a temporary exhibit produced by Union Pacific Railroad Museum.

The Move Over, Sir! Women Working on the Railroad exhibit acknowledges the many contributions that women have made to the railroad. From stewarresses to telegraphers to switchmen, women have occupied communication and operational railroad jobs. Clintonians are encouraged to stop by the Depot to learn more about where women got their start on the railroad and how the railroad workforce is still impacted by women today.

Move Over, Sir! Women Working on the Railroad will be set up at the Olde Towne Depot from March 9 through March 23. The Depot is open Tuesday from noon until 5 p.m. and Wednesday through Saturday from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. For more information about the Depot, call 601-924-0113.

MC Faculty Wives hold February meeting

Special to The Clinton Courier

The day group of the Mississippi College Faculty Wives held their February meeting at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Roberts on February 1. Along with co-hostess Mrs. John Meadors, Mrs. Roberts had a theme of Valentine's Day for the refreshments, with pink macaroons and heart-shaped cookies included in the repast.

Mrs. Thomas Bennet, vice-president of the day group, mentioned a variety of events taking place on the Mississippi campus in February, ranging from an evangelism talk, a production of Steel Magnolias, a jazz band concert, and a lecture by the Mississippi Humanities Council 2018, Teacher of the Year Dr. John Meadors. The conversation was equally varied, with topics that moved from the recent snow in Clinton to teaching, making King Cake, and planning a day trip to Louisiana.

Those attending included Mrs. Kevin Burns, Mrs. Michael Cudd, Mrs. Jerry Cannon and Mrs. Roger Greene.
